Women can now be part of musical events at RKM Gol Park
STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE KOLKATA, 11 APRIL

In a major decision, Ramakrishna Mission authorities at Belur Math have allowed women to take part in musical soirees and sing, accompanied by recitation at the Ramakrishna Mission Institute of Culture, Gol Park. This, a first in RKM Gol Park, was not the practice till now. Even at Swamiji's ancestral house, which is a branch centre of RKM, women were not allowed to take part in cultural shows. However, the songs and musical programmes should be held in parity with the philosophy and ideology of Ramakrishna Mission, the decision mentions. So long, women could take part in seminars and workshops and deliver speeches but were not allowed to take part in musical conferences. Scholars like professor Rama Chowdhury, Marie Louis Burke, Kapila Vatsayan, professor Nilanjana Sanyal took part in seminars and workshops and delivered talks at RKM, Gol Park. In the history of RKM, Gol Park, Swami Nityaswarup-nandaji had invited actors Gurudas Banerjee and Molia Devi to take part in a one-act play. Again, Swami Lokeswaranandaji as the secretary of RKM Gol Park, had invited famous singer Vani Jairam to sing songs in Vivekananda Hall. Because of this age-old convention, vocalists like Kishori Amonkar or Subha Mudgal could not take part in the musical programme which was held on Swami Vivekananda's birthday on 12 January at Gol Park. There was resentment among some people over this age-old practice. They even thought of informing the ministry of culture about this. However, the decision by RKM authorities has put to rest all such speculations.

are signs of heat stroke, heat rash, heat cramps along with weakness, dizziness, headache, nausea and sweating. The advisory said dry weather will prevail and meteorological conditions suggest that maximum temperature is expected to rise by 2-3 degrees Celsius during the next five days. Hot and discomfort level is very likely in the next five days and elderly people with chronic diseases have been advised to stay indoors during the day and parents are requested not to take the infants during the day between 11 am and 4 pm. State government has instructed all the civic bodies to take appropriate steps to combat the hot and humid weather that is going to persist between 10-15 April.

Accordingly, New Town Kolkata Development Authority (NKDA) has taken steps to ensure that all the water ATMs work well. # TMC on back foot after losing national party status

SUBHENDU MAITI KOLKATA, 11 APRIL

Losing the status of a national party, ruling Trinamul Congress seems to be in a disadvantageous position, particularly ahead of the Lok Sabha elections in 2024. While reacting to the Election Commission of India's (ECI) drastic decision to withdraw the recognition of a national party tag from the TMC, veteran MP Sougata Roy said on Monday night: "We would explore legal options to challenge the ECI move against our party."

In significant decisions, the ECI on Monday recognised Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) as a national party and withdrew this recognition given to the Nationalist Congress Party, CPI and Trinamul Congress. In other decisions, the poll panel gave recognition to Lok Janshakti Party (Ram Vilas) as a state party in Nagaland and Tipra Motha Party was recognised as a state party in Tripura. Bharat Rashtra Samithi has been derecognised as a state party in Andhra Pradesh. The poll panel also withdrew the state party status of

Aam Aadmi Party celebration in Kolkata. BISWAJIT GHOSHAL

Rashtriya Lok Dal in Uttar Pradesh and of Revolutionary Socialist Party in West Bengal. The Voice of the People Party got recognition as a state party in Meghalaya. Tipra Motha Party, Lok Janshakti Party (Ram Vilas) and Voice of the People Party got recognition as state parties based on their recent performance in the Assembly polls earlier this year in Tripura, Nagaland and Meghalaya, respectively. Some political analysts in the city felt that the ruling Trinamul Congress suffered a setback at the backdrop when the party, headed by Mamata Banerjee is projecting it as a prime anti-BJP force in the national elections ahead of the general elections in the country. Trinamul Congress is all set to face major disadvantages, they felt adding that the party would be recognized as a state party following the commission's decision. 1. It would be difficult for Trinamul Congress to get back the national status before 2033 when the ECI would form a new list of national and state parties. List of national parties is formed every 10 years. 2. From now, Trinamul Congress won't be mentioned there in the top of the list of five front-ranking national parties in EVM or ballot papers. 3. Trinamul Congress may not be allowed to use the tag 'All India'. 4. ECI is no more bound to invite Trinamul Congress in any meeting called by the commission to discuss issues related to polls. 5. Losing national status, the TMC may find problems in connection with its election funds. 6. Trinamul Congress may lose its significance in national politics in elections scheduled in coming years. Trinamul Congress was formed on 1 January, 1998 after Mamata Banerjee left Congress to form her own political platform.

'I love Keoratala' pic and caption fake: Mamata

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE KOLKATA, 11 APRIL

A visibly annoyed chief minister Mamata Banerjee has asked the city commissioner of police Vineet Kumar Goyal to find out whether an individual or a group had uploaded a picture in the social media showing a photo with caption: "I love Keoratala." Keoratala, is a crematorium in Kalighat area and used by people, who reside on the southern part of the city. Many feel the photo and caption is a meme on the various civic bodies using the slogan "I love ward so and so". The meme of that slogan was uploaded on social media last week. Thousands of people had criticized Miss Banerjee without verifying it. The CPM and BJP supporters reacted sharply to the fake picture to criticize the CM. Miss Banerjee had said over and again that the opposition parties put up fake videos sometimes to disturb communal peace and harmony and to propagate slander or malign individuals. Keoratala is the burning ghat in south Kolkata whose official name is Mysore Garden. Burning ghat is the place where people go to mourn for their near and dear ones. After becoming the chief min-

CM to open plush auditorium at Alipore on Thursday

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE KOLKATA, 11 APRIL

Chief minister Mamata Banerjee will inaugurate Dhanadhanye auditorium at Alipore on Thursday. Built at an estimated cost of Rs 440 crore, the construction work began in 2017. It should have been completed within 40 months but because of Covid pandemic, it missed the deadline. The state-of-the-art auditorium is shaped like a conch which has been designed by the chief minister. The auditorium is 510 feet in length and 210 feet in width. The six-floor auditorium has two meeting halls with a capacity of 2,000 seats and 540 seats respectively. There is also a street theatre facility with seating capacity of 300. There will be a banquet, food court and car parking arrangements on the ground floor. It was learnt that 250 vehicles could be parked on the ground floor. The idea to set up the auditorium was mooted by Miss Banerjee, a dream project for her. After coming to power the biggest auditorium that had been constructed was Biswa Bangla Convention Centre in New Town. Bengal Global Business Summit was held here and the capacity of the main auditorium is 3,000, which is the highest in any auditorium in the country. But never a board saying: "I love Keoratala" was put up at the crematorium, a senior official of Kolkata Municipal Corporation said.

ister Miss Banerjee had developed the area and the mourners' corner has been renovated. There is an arrangement for drinking water and toilets.

DA crisis: Joint forum 'upset' SC hearing postponed, to continue stir

AGENCIES KOLKATA, 11 APRIL

The joint forum of the West Bengal government employees, spearheading the movement against non-payment of dearness allowance arrears by the state government, was upset over postponement of a crucial hearing in the matter at the Supreme Court on Tuesday. However, the joint forum representatives announced that while waiting for the next course of hearing in the matter scheduled on 24 April, they will continue with their other forms of movements in the matter till their demands are fulfilled. The hearing in this matter was supposed to take place before the apex court's division bench of Justice Dinesh Maheshwari and Justice Sanjay Kumar on Tuesday. However, the hearing was again postponed till 24 April. Admitting that the repeated postponement of hearing in the matter at the apex court might bring about some frustration among the agitating employees, Debprasad Halder, of the joint forum, said that from the previous verdicts in the matter including that of the Calcutta High Court, it is clear that the state government's argument on this matter does not hold much ground. "So, our appeal to them is to hold patience since ultimately the victory will be ours," he said. Meanwhile, after a division bench of Calcutta High Court advised the Bengal government to arrange a solution meeting with the agitators by 17 April, the joint forum has agreed to send a three-member delegation for the meeting. However, the forum has set three pre-conditions for the meeting - withdrawal of the state government petition at the apex court challenging the verdict of a division bench of Calcutta High Court last year.

Museum on freedom fighters to come up at Chandannagar

TARUN GOSWAMI KOLKATA, 11 APRIL

A museum to highlight the freedom movement in India and the role of Chandannagar in it will be set up inside Chandannagar College, said Debashis Sarkar, principal of the college. Chandannagar College is the country's only educational institution that had remained closed from 1908-31 in view of the revolutionary activities. Though it was a French colony that became a part of India in 1950, the college had to remain closed due to the pressure put by the British government. There are 18 revolutionaries, who were either born in the city or took shelter or spent most of their years in Chandannagar for their revolutionary activities. The museum will be set up in a building set up by the French, 200 years ago. The West Bengal Heritage Commission declared the building as a heritage building and the state public works department thoroughly repaired the structure, said Mr Sarkar, who took the initiative to set up the museum. Once the museum is set up, it will be the only educational institution in the country that will have a freedom movement museum. Sri Aurobindo left Kolkata and stayed in Chandannagar from where he left for Pondicherry (now Puducherry) where he stayed till the last. Rashbehari Bose had left for Japan and set up the Indian National Army (INA). He later made Netaji as the commander-in-chief of INA. Bose was born in Chandannagar. A statue of Bose will be kept at the museum. The other revolutionaries were Motilal Roy, in whose house Sri Aurobindo stayed for quite some time. Then there was Charu Chandra Roy, Kanailal Dutta, who was hanged for killing Narendra Goswami, had become an approver in the Alipore bomb case. The others were Shresh Chandra Ghosh, Basanta Kumar Bandyopadhyay, Narendranath Bandyopadhyay, Upendranath Bandyopadhyay, Suneeti Ghosh, Tinkori Mukhopadhyay, Suhasini Ganguly, Makhantal Ghosal, Jyotish Chandra Ghosh, Heerandra Kumar Chattopadhyay, Deenesh Chandra Majumdar and Kaleecharan Ghosh. The British government had set up the sedition committee, under Justice Rowlatt to find out why educated Bengali youths had joined the revolutionary movement. In the report, the names of several revolutionaries who had either born or took shelter in Chandannagar have been mentioned. Mr Sarkar said the college has set up a Centre for Heritage Studies. The Centre will look after the museum that will highlight the history and cultural heritage of the region which is often called mini-Europe as well as various other aspects of indigenous literary and cultural history. The centre will conduct a survey of the important historical and archaeological monuments. It has also offered a certificate course on heritage studies. Mr Sarkar maintained that all old furniture that had been dumped in the college have been repaired and are being used. The podium in the auditorium is nearly 200-year-old. The repairing of the building is underway, he pointed out.
